A Taste of the Mediterranean

You are cordially invited to enjoy, explore and experience A Taste of the Mediterranean with culinary expert & "Master Foodie" Mara Papatheodorou, August 5-12, 2016, cruising from Athens to Venice.

Dear World Traveler and Culinary Enthusiast!

The magic of the Mediterranean is as alluring as it is diverse. The tastes & traditions of the region are simple, sublime and romantically delicious. The sea, the sun and the soil all contribute to what thrives and grows here which in turn creates each areas' special flavors and flair. It is the unique interpretation and usage of these common elements – the how and the why – that make each country's dishes different. As a former editor at Bon Appétit for 11 years, I look forward to hosting you on this culinary and cultural journey of the Aegean and Adriatic Seas in the Eastern Mediterranean. I promise I will bring the region alive and act as your culinary guide during this tantalizing cruise!

Silversea offers an elite luxury experience with all-suite accommodations, an attentive staff and unrivaled cuisine, making it the perfect venue for this extraordinary culinary and cultural exploration. Aboard the Silver Spirit, discover the award-winning amenities that earned Silversea "World's Best Small Ship Cruise Line" for ten consecutive years from the readers of Condè Nast Traveler. Gracious hosts greet you by name and remember your personal preferences. With every detail cared for in advance – including an extensive selection of fine wines and spirits, complimentary 24-hour room service and all gratuities – you're free to relax and enjoy a journey above and beyond all expectations.

PORTS OF CALL

ATHENS (PIRAEUS), GREECE

The Acropolis and the Parthenon were built by the Athenians during the 5th century BC in honor of the goddess Athena. The temple complex was regarded as a citadel of the gods. The ship's embarkation point is Piraeus, Athens' busy seaport, located eight miles from the city.

KATAKOLON (OLYMPIA), GREECE

Visit Ancient Olympia, birthplace of the Olympic Games in 776 BC. The area's most imposing monument was the outstanding Temple of Zeus. It housed the gold-and-ivory statue of Zeus, one of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World. The famous Olympia Stadium was the largest of its day with a capacity of 45,000 spectators.

CORFU, GREECE

Situated off the western coast of the Greek mainland, Corfu is one of the six Ionian Islands. Its unique scenery, verdant with gentle green hills and sub-tropical flora,makes it one of the most captivating of all the Greek islands.

KOTOR, MONTENEGRO

The narrow streets of Kotor's Old Walled Town hide architectural treasures including Medieval houses, palaces, and churches. The magnificent Cathedral of St. Triphun was constructed in 1166 on the remains of a 9th-century temple. And 17th-century Grgurina Palace is a testament to the town's lengthy maritime history.

DUBROVNIK, CROATIA

Called the "Jewel of the Adriatic" by Lord Byron and classified as a world heritage treasure by UNESCO, Dubrovnik boasts of ancient streets lined with stone palaces, Venetian-style buildings and majestic bell towers. A walk atop the walls affords spectacular views of the city and the sea.

HVAR, CROATIA

Hvar is the longest of the Croatian islands and noted for its lush vegetation, quaint towns and fertile vineyards. Often called the Lavender Island, a particularly rich Medieval heritage complements Hvar's natural and unique beauty.

VENICE, ITALY

Located on Italy's north coast and virtually surrounded by water, Venice is singular among the world's cities. Built over a sprawling archipelago, Venice encompasses 118 islands separated by more than 150 canals, spanned by some 400 bridges. Add a rich history and incomparable art treasures, and its fame as one of the world's great cities is set.
